

SHIP SCOURGED BY BERI BERI.

Norwegian Bark Reaches Savannah from Quarantine at Sapelo.

Savannah, Ga., Jan. 22.—Showing effects of terrible experiences, 13 of the crew of the Norwegian bark Medbor, which foundered near Sapelo two weeks ago, reached Savannah Sunday afternoon from the quarantine station on Sapelo, where they had been detained because of beri beri among them. Two of the crew had died.

The Medbor sailed from Port Natal some months ago. Captain Carl Telfersen was in command. The bark reached Cajo, Mexico, with five sick with beri beri. They were put in a hospital at Progreso, but the captain was almost immediately thereafter made to take them away, despite his protests. He was made to sail, he says, and in a few days Second Mate Peter Avinson died.

The vessel, on the way to England, was wrecked on Sapelo. The crew was rescued by an oyster sloop, the crew of which two had to remain in quarantine, where Seaman Carlson died.

CUT FACE OPEN WITH KNIFE.

The Blade Was Driven With Most Terrific Force.

Columbus, Ga., Jan. 22.—While he was holding his baby in his arms, Lester Henderson, a young man of Girard, Ala., was cut from temple to jaw by George S. Smith, in this city. The knife, which was curved at the end, and driven with terrific force by Smith, laid the whole side of the face open, going to the bone, and at one place cutting through to the mouth.

The deed occurred on the street in the presence of Mrs. Henderson, and Henderson, who was holding the child, was powerless to defend himself. The cause of the trouble is not known. Smith claims that Henderson called him out of his house and started the difficulty. Witnesses say that Smith drew a pistol on the other man after slashing his face. Smith was afterwards arrested in Columbus.

Wise Counsel From the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured—so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. Price 50c.

Complaint Made to President.

Rio De Janeiro, Jan. 22.—A complaint regarding the manner in which the coffee convention was being enforced was made to the president on Saturday by a committee of coffee growers. They stated that the new law allowed only the quotation of higher brands of coffee, while inferior ones remain without sale. The president replied that the law could only be modified by an act of congress.

Marietta, Ga., Lady Badly Hurt.

Marietta, Ga., Jan. 22.—Mrs. Dyson, wife of John Dyson, a contractor, was very painfully, if not fatally injured in a runaway accident here Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The lady was coming to the city in a hack when the horse reached Powder Springs and became frightened at a bicycle and commenced running. Upon nearing the public square Mrs. Dyson attempted to jump. She fell, striking on her face, and the wheels of the hack ran over her. She was carried to the store of Dyson Bros., and medical aid summoned. The horse made five complete trips around the square before he was stopped.

How to Avoid Pneumonia.

We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop of Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Observe McKinley Birthday.

New York, Jan. 22.—The Carnation League of America has sent on a special appeal to all patriotic men and women to observe the birthday of William McKinley by wearing a carnation, the favorite flower of the murdered president. "Carnation day" comes on January 29, when McKinley would have been 65 years old. The league was established in 1903, and has among its trustees President Roosevelt and some of the cabinet officers and United States senators.

The Right Name.

Mr. August Sherpe, the popular overseer of the poor at Fort Madison, Ia., says: "Dr. King's New Life Pills are rightly named; they act more agreeably, do more good and make one feel better than any other laxative." Guaranteed to cure biliousness and constipation. 25c at all drug stores.

Negro Children Cremated.

Columbus, Ga., Jan. 22.—Two negro children, aged 4 years and 18 months old, were burned to a crisp in a building destroyed by fire here Monday morning at 8 o'clock. The charred remains were found by the firemen, who burst open the door to the burning building, which had been locked and the two children left in a room by their mother at 5 o'clock, with a fire burning in the open fireplace.

How to Cure Chilblains.

"To enjoy freedom from chilblains," writes John Kemp, East Otisfield, Me., "I apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Have also used it for salt rheum with excellent results." Guaranteed to cure fever sores, indolent ulcers, piles, burns, wounds, frost bites and skin diseases. 25c at all drug stores.

Who Gets Your Vote?

"Do you see that man there?" remarked a barber to a customer in his chair. "Well, he has had one and the same job for the past forty-seven years and has been married all that time, and his wife has never at any time during that period known what salary her husband was getting. The wife gets so much a week and no more and has never been able to learn what amount of money her husband has been receiving in exchange for his labor. Now, what bothers me is which should have the diamond medal—I say diamond, as in this case the finest would seem to be needed—the man for being able to so long baffle a woman's curiosity or the woman for surviving so long an unsatisfied curiosity."—Columbus Dispatch.

Cheering Tommy Up.

The obstacles which beset the pathway of a photographer when he endeavors to secure "a pleasant expression" are many, particularly when his sitters are of a tender age.

"I do not believe whipping does children a particle of good," said Mrs. Green, returning flushed and discouraged from a visit to the photographer with her Tommy. "Here I've spent over an hour in that hot room trying to make this child look pleasant. I've slapped his hands twice, and he looked crosser each time than he did before."—Youth's Companion.

A Fiercely Duel.

The most terrible duel fought at any time in Paris was the one between Colonel D., an old Bonapartist officer, and M. de G. of the Gardes du Corps, a mere youth, but of herculean strength. The two men, lashed together so as to leave their right arms free, were armed with short knives, placed in a hackney coach and driven at a tearing gallop around the Place de la Concorde. They were taken out of the coach dead. The colonel had eighteen stabs, the youth only four, but one of these had pierced his heart.
